

Grille Installation Instruction

Rev. 150116

Part# | GR18GEC09H | Application | 05~10 Chrysler 300/300C - Low Bumper Stainless | Steel Mesh Grille

Part Name

Part Name QTY Description Item

Parts List         2         L-Hook Brackets         8         5         Fla           3         Nylon Lock Nuts         8         10-24         6         Pla	Part Name	QTY	Description
2	minum Studs	8	10-24×3″
Install Notes: Overlay    Description   Description	t Washers	8	10#
Open the hood. Use a screwdriver to remove the four push in fasteners along the top of the bumper cover (Fig 1). Next, remove the two- piece plastic cover assembly behind the four fasteners. Each cover has two press-in clips securing them in place. Pull up to remove them. Just behind the chrome grille in each lower corner is a molded flap that is secured to the foam bumper pad. Access these fasteners through the area from the two-piece cover. These are a special 1/8 " square head design screw. These can be unscrewed by hand.  The entire bumper cover assembly must be removed to install the bumper the bumper cover. Use a small hammer and punch to remove the center replaced with new hardware. Each end of the bumper cover is secured to form the bottom by pulling the wheel well splash shields back. Remove the splash shield to the bumper cover. Ten 7mm bolts hold this splash shield to the bumper cover. Ten 7mm bolts h	stic Body Retainers	6
Open the hood. Use a screwdriver to remove the four push in fasteners along the top of the bumper cover (Fig 1). Next, remove the two- piece plastic cover assembly behind the four fasteners. Each cover has two press-in clips securing them in place. Pull up to remove them. Just behind the chrome grille in each lower corner is a molded flap that is secured to the foam bumper pad. Access these fasteners through the area from the two-piece cover. These are a special 1/8 " square head design screw. These can be unscrewed by hand.  The entire bumper cover assembly must be removed to install the bumper the bumper cover to splash shields just below the fender line in each whith the bumper cover. Use a small hammer and punch to remove the center replaced with new hardware. Each end of the bumper cover is secured to form the bottom by pulling the wheel well splash shields back. Remove the splash shield to the bumper cover. Ten 7mm bolts hold this splash shield.  The signal lamps and fog lights must be disconnected from the bumper cover is nearly a cover. The signal lamps and fog lights must be disconnected from the bumper cover. Secured to the lights. Twist each light sock washer hose. Remove the wiring to the driving lights. Remove the bumper cover. Use TOOLS TO TIGHTEN THE STUDS). Over-tightening may create dimples on the face of the grille. Center the grilles into the opening. Check the alignment the grille in comparison to the face of the bumper cover. Center the inserts; install the "L" hook brackets, washers and nylon lock nuts onto each stud. Wrap the "L" hook brackets around the rear of the opening (Fig 3$4). Tighten	Cut ×
Open the hood. Use a screwdriver to remove the four push in fasteners along the top of the bumper cover (Fig 1). Next, remove the two- piece plastic cover assembly behind the four fasteners. Each cover has two press-in clips securing them in place.  Pull up to remove them. Just behind the chrome grille in each lower corner is a molded flap that is secured to the foam bumper pad. Access these fasteners through the area from the two-piece cover. These are a special 1/8 " square head design screw. These can be unscrewed by hand.  The entire bumper cover assembly must be removed to install the bumper the bumper cover to splash shields just below the fender line in each with the bumper cover. Use a small hammer and punch to remove the center replaced with new hardware. Each end of the bumper cover is secured to form the bottom by pulling the wheel well splash shields back. Remove the splash shield to the bumper cover. Ten 7mm bolts hold this splash shield.  The signal lamps and fog lights must be disconnected from the bumper of 2 on each side. This will gain access to the lights. Twist each light sock washer hose. Remove the wiring to the driving lights. Remove the bumper opening.  By hand, thread the aluminum mounting studs into the holes tapped into the back of the grilles. (DO NOT USE TOOLS TO TIGHTEN THE STUDS). Over-tightening may create dimples on the face of the grille. Center the grilles into the opening. Check the alignment the grille in comparison to the face of the bumper cover. Center the inserts; install the "L" hook brackets, washers and nylon lock nuts onto each stud. Wrap the "L" hook brackets around the rear of the opening (Fig 3$4). Tighten	illustration four push in fasteners along the top of the bumper cover (Fig 1). Next, remove the two- piece plastic cover assembly behind the four fasteners. Each cover has two press-in clips securing them in place.  Pull up to remove them. Just behind the chrome grille in each lower corner is a molded flap that is secured to the foam bumper pad. Access these fasteners through the area from the two-piece cover. These are a special 1/8 " square head design screw. These can be unscrewed by hand.  The entire bumper cover assembly must be removed to install the bumper the bumper cover to splash shields just below the fender line in each which the bumper cover. Use a small hammer and punch to remove the center replaced with new hardware. Each end of the bumper cover is secured to form the bottom by pulling the wheel well splash shields back. Remove the splash shield to the bumper cover. Ten 7mm bolts hold this splash shield.  The signal lamps and fog lights must be disconnected from the bumper cover as a splash shield. This will gain access to the lights. Twist each light soci washer hose. Remove the wiring to the driving lights. Remove the bumper opening.  By hand, thread the aluminum mounting studs into the holes tapped into the back of the grilles. (DO NOT USE TOOLS TO TIGHTEN THE STUDS). Over-tightening may create dimples on the face of the grille. Center the grilles into the opening. Check the alignment the grille in comparison to the face of the bumper cover. Center the inserts; install the "L" hook brackets, washers and nylon lock nuts onto each stud. Wrap the "L" hook brackets around the rear of the opening (Fig 3$4). Tighten the bumper cover to splash shields just below the fender line in each who the bumper cover. Use a small hammer and punch to remove the center replaced with new hardware. Each end of the bumper cover is secured to form the bottom by pulling the wheel well splash shields back. Remove the splash shield to the bumper cover. Ten 7mm bolts hold this splash shield.  The signal lamps and fog lights must be disconnected from the bumper of 2 on each side. This will gain access to the lights. Twist each light sock washer hose. Remove the wiring to the driving lights. Remove the bumper opening.  By hand, thread the aluminum mounting studs into the holes tapped into the back of the grilles. (DO NOT USE TOOLS TO TIGHTEN THE STUDS). Over-tightening may create dimples on the face of the grille. Center the grilles into the opening. Check the alignment the grille in comparison to the face of the bumper cover. Center the inserts; install the "L" hook brackets, washers and nylon lock nuts onto each stud. Wrap the "L" hook brackets around the rear of the opening (Fig 3$4). Tighten 2' on each side. This will gain access to the lights. Twist each light sock washer hose. Remove the wiring to the driving lights. Remove the bumpopening.  By hand, thread the aluminum mounting studs into the holes tapped into the back of the grilles. (DO NOT USE TOOLS TO TIGHTEN THE STUDS). Over-tightening may create dimples on the face of the grille. Center the grilles into the opening. Check the alignment the grille in comparison to the face of the bumper cover. Center the inserts; install the "L" hook brackets, washers and nylon lock nuts onto each stud. Wrap the "L" hook brackets around the rear of the opening (Fig 3$4). Tighten	tel well (6 total). Access from each plastic rivet. T the fenders with a 10mi e bolts. Remove the bol	the rivet These riv im bolt. A	ts on each end of vets will be Access these bolts
the holes tapped into the back of the grilles. (DO NOT USE TOOLS TO TIGHTEN THE STUDS). Over-tightening may create dimples on the face of the grille. Center the grilles into the opening. Check the alignment the grille in comparison to the face of the bumper cover. Center the inserts; install the "L" hook brackets, washers and nylon lock nuts onto each stud. Wrap the "L" hook brackets around the rear of the opening (Fig 3$4). Tighten	et assembly and remove	e. Disco	nnect the headligh ule Haluwale.
Once you have properly fitted and aligned the grilles; Re- install the asseventicle.	mbly bumper cover asse	embly ba	ick onto the 7 Installation completed!!!

The instruction here is for your reference only. You may need to bend the grille a little bit to adjust to fit. We strongly recommend the professional installer for best result. We are not responsible for any damage caused by the installation. Thank you for choosing our product!